

africa21 presents

African Diaspora and Development Day (ad3) 2003

Theme for the Day:
'Shaping Africa's Future - Do Young Africans in the diaspora share the dream of the African Union/NEPAD?'

Saturday July 5th 2003
(8.30 am - 8.00pm)

@

Clare Management Centre, Birkbeck College, University of London, Torrington Square (behind Malet Street) London WC1 E7X

Keynote Speaker: Philip Emeagwali - 'a father of the internet'

He will talk on the African Diaspora's role in narrowing Africa's skills gap

Plus 12 workshops, funding and careers masterclasses, exhibitions, music, African food, networking, and the First People Working Earnestly for Africa (PEWA) Awards

Please see attached press release for more information about the day and a full programme.

ad3 - developing Africa from a distance!

You can also book on-line on our website - afford-uk.org

ad3 2003 Booking Form

Do you require:

Creche Facilities - we need to know the number of children and their ages. (There are a limited number of places available so please register early)

Masterclasses:

Please indicate which Masterclass you would be interested in attending. Please note that due to a limited number of places for the Masterclass and workshops, we cannot guarantee preferences so register early to avoid disappointment.

Workshops:

Choose any two of the following workshops that you would prefer to attend (some of these might be subject to change)

- 1) Understanding fundraising and donor policy
- 2) Linking careers, diversity, brain drain and development
- 3) Promoting gender and development Awareness
- 4) Fostering diaspora input to development policy
- 5) Assessing the impact of Gulf War 2 on Africa
- 6) Understanding the role of ICT in development
- 7) Enhancing leaders leadership in Africa's development
- 8) Challenging images of development
- 9) Tackling trade issues around primary commodities
- 10) Promoting young African's involvement in African development
- 11) Developing diaspora and mainstream development linkages
- 12) Deepening partnership between the diaspora and Africa

Name: _____

Address: _____

Postcode: _____

Organisation: _____

Email: _____

Daytime Tel: _____ Mobile _____

Please send, fax or email to: Onyekachi Wambu

ad3
31-33 Bondway,
Vauxhall Cross,
London SW8 1SJ

Fax: 0207 587 3905
Email: ad3@afford-uk.org

You can also book online and nominate candidates for the PEWA Awards through AFFORD's Website on: www.afford-uk.org

Closing date for registration is Friday June 27th 2003-06-10 africa21 is an umbrella of 9 African organizations working together. It comprises:

Abantu for Development
Africa Foundation Stone (AFS)
African Foundation for Development (AFFORD)
Akina Mama wa Afrika (AMwA)
Black International Construction Organisation (BICO)
Diaspora
Horn Reflections
Pastoral and Environmental Network in the Horn of Africa (PENHA)
Sierra Leone Women's Forum (SLWF)

Information service provided by AFFORD: As part of our "Breaking in -careers in the development sector" program, AFFORD (www.afford-uk.org) helps to publicise opportunities that arise in the mainstream development sector in order to encourage more applications from suitable candidates among the African diaspora.

Submit job openings to afford@afford-uk.org
AFFORD (African Foundation for Development)
Ground Floor, 31/33
Bondway,
London SW8 1SJ, UK

Tel: +44 (0)20 7587 3900 (switchboard)
Fax: +44 (0)20 7587 3919
email: afford@afford-uk.org
web: <http://www.afford-uk.org>

Expanding and enhancing the contribution that Africans in the diaspora make to African development

A date for your diary: Saturday 5 July 2003: African Diaspora & Development Day taking place in London.

Book it, you won't want to miss it. To register your interest, send an email to ADDD2003@afford-uk.org

Join the "Africans without borders" online discussion group - a forum to explore the practical ways in which the African diaspora can contribute to Africa's development. Send an email to Africans_Without_Borders-

subscribe@yahoogroups.com

To join AFFORD's "African diaspora jobs alert service" send an email to AFFORD-Jobs-subscribe@yahoogroups.com

To unsubscribe from this group, send an email to:

AFFORD-Jobs-unsubscribe@yahoogroups.com